

Abstract of the Disclosure

20 Directory assistance (DA) information is provided by a telephone system to internet protocol (IP) client telephones in selectable formats including: a text data format provided jointly with an aural format in response to an aural request from the client and, alternately, in text data format in response to a text message request from the client.

0034889 052529
063250 " 060420